

OUR TEAM OF RESOURCE PERSON

Sunil Kumar Jha is primarily a child rights practitioner with 16 years plus experience of working both at grassroots level and with the system. He is a trained social work professional with MA in Social Work from the Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai (2006) and a degree in law from Calcutta University (2003). He has provided consulting services to various national and international organizations and academic institutions.

Dr. Rashmi Jha is Gender and Child Rights Professional, currently working as Programme Director, Gender at Piramal School of Leadership. Previously she was working as a Consultant with Child Protection Unit Unicef and Unfpa.

Mr. Prakash Kumar is an experienced program manager with extensive expertise in social work, focusing on child protection, community development, and public health. He specializes in training, advocacy, and program evaluation. He has worked in collaborations with government and non-government organizations towards social welfare. He holds a Master's degree in Social Work from Tata Institute of Social Sciences, specializing in Health and Development.

Dr. Meeta Mohini is Visiting Faculty, Chanakya National Law University (CNLU) and Advocate Patna High Court. She is an LL.B (Gold medalist), LL.M (Rank holder) and PG Diploma in Human Resource Management, PhD (Law). She has conducted legal awareness training camps for grassroots level workers, NGOs such as World Health Partners, Equity Foundation, schools, colleges, etc.

Mrs. Sanju Singh is Advocate in Patna High Court. She is also State Advocacy Manager, Justice Ventures India Trust (Nyay Network). She is Master of Science (M.Sc.), a Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.), and a Master of Social Work (MSW). She has been deeply involved in advocating for human rights, with a particular focus on women empowerment and child protection. She was awarded the prestigious LDM fellowship by Packard & Louis Foundation.

Dr. Sharad Kumari is currently working as Programme Officer in Actionaid Association for the last 15 years. She is M.A. & Ph.D. in History; M.A. in Women Studies. She has been very closely associated with the feminist movement in the state. She has a wide experience of working with children & youth. She is an acclaimed trainer on Gender, Women's rights, Child rights & Panchayati Raj. She has played an important role in facilitating various community led processes like social audits, public hearings and campaigns like Beti Zindabaad over the years. She has also led the child protection work of the organization in partnership with UNICEF in Bihar.

Mrs. Irina Sinha is currently the National Director-Strategic Partnerships & Women's Economic Empowerment at Project Concern International (PCI) in India. With a remarkable 27-year career in the development sector, she has successfully overseen and supervised numerous large-scale government and donor-supported programs, particularly in the field of women's empowerment. Her expertise lies in community mobilization, capacity building, livelihood promotion, microfinance, and the management of programs aimed at socially empowering women and adolescents.

Dr. Priyadarshini Trivedi is Associate Director – Family Planning, Project Concern International. A committed professional from development sector, with over twenty years of work experience in the fields Family Planning, Reproductive Health, Gender, Adolescent Reproductive and Sexual Health, HIV/AIDS in association with INGOs, NGOs and Government. Project planning and management, training and communication, and advocacy with documentation is one of her forte and comprehensive areas of expertise.